

One-Day Workshop under the Nirbhaya Kanya Abhiyan

The one-day 'Nirbhaya Kanya Abhiyan' workshop, organized by the Students Development Board, was held on Thursday, 15th February 2024, at Vasantdada Patil Pratishthan's Gururaya Sadanand Maharaj Arts and Commerce College, Kondhwa Budruk, Pune. The workshop featured insightful lectures from Dr. Mridula Khandare (Resident Medical Officer, Municipal Corporation), Dr. Ashok Dhakode (Resident Medical Officer, Municipal Corporation), and ANIS activist Ms. Madhuri Gaikwad. Additionally, Mr. Shankar Bangar conducted self-defense demonstrations. The event was presided over by Hon. Jalinder Kamthe, President of the Institute, with around 70 students in attendance.

The workshop comprised four sessions and was inaugurated by Hon. Jalinder Kamthe, who paid tribute to Savitribai Phule. In his introduction, the college principal, Dr. Pramod Botre, emphasized the need for students to develop positive thinking and fearlessness, highlighting the importance of the present time for the progress of girls.

Prof. Sahebrao Borse, Program Officer of the Students' Development Board, introduced the president and chief guest. Addressing the attendees, Hon. Jalinder Kamthe underscored the importance of physical, mental, and emotional well-being in empowering women to combat injustice and oppression. He also noted that Savitribai Phule Pune University is the first in the country to implement the Nirbhaya Kanya Abhiyan.

In the second session, Dr. Mridula Khandare (MBBS, Sion Hospital Mumbai, Resident Medical Officer, Pune Municipal Corporation) and Dr. Ashok Dhakode (MBBS, MS Surgeon, Medical Officer, Pune Municipal Corporation, and Retired District Surgeon, Government of Maharashtra) spoke on women's health issues. Dr. Khandare stressed the significance of cleanliness and mental health in leading a healthy life. Dr. Dhakode advised students to be cautious while taking medications and injections, emphasizing the importance of seeking medical advice before administration. He also provided crucial insights on protecting oneself from serious illnesses like HIV/AIDS, cervical cancer, and breast cancer.

The third session featured ANIS spokesperson Ms. Madhuri Gaikwad, who addressed students' queries on personality development and the financial challenges faced by women. She highlighted the importance of critical and creative thinking, dialogue skills, and confidence for personal and financial growth. She urged the students to recognize their strengths and weaknesses and shared techniques for managing stress. Encouraging the girls to draw inspiration from Savitribai Phule, she called for revolutionary changes through fearlessness. She also emphasized self-reliance through her personal stories and poetry.

In the fourth session, Mr. Shankar Bangar conducted self-defense training. Through live demonstrations with his colleagues, he trained students in techniques to defend against sudden attacks. Simple exercises and self-defense tactics were explained, promoting a healthy and secure lifestyle.

The event was well-coordinated by Prof. Dr. Neelam Goyal, while Prof. Dr. Yogita Kunjir delivered a vote of thanks for the first session. The second session's chief guest was introduced by National Service Scheme Officer Prof. Deepak Kamble. Also present at the event were IQAC Coordinator Prof. Dr. Vivekananda Sasane, Head of the Commerce Department Prof. Rajendra, Prof. Sonali Gholap, Prof. Manisha Kakade, Prof. Mira Bade, Prof. Pallavi Bhosale, Librarian Prof. Tanuja Chormale, Clerk Ms. Suvama Kamble, Shri. Vijay Doifode, and other non-teaching staff.

Special support for the workshop was provided by Pooja Nade, Rohit Kumbhar, Malhari Galfade, Karan Shinde, and Pooja More, contributing to the program's success.
